Choumert Road, Peckham Rye £950,000

Architecturally-treated and thoughtfully-renovated two double bedroom Victorian conversion apartment combining traditional craftsmanship, beautiful natural materials, and carefully sourced vintage pieces.

Every single detail has been considered to create a home full of warmth, character and individuality. A well-stocked garden plus roomy detached outbuilding complete the package. Chain free.

The attention to perfection throughout the property is worthy of the highest praise. We love the porcelain light switches (from The Swtch Company), the restored original Victorian ceiling roses, the Little Greene decorative scheme, the gorgeous tiles (Clay & Rock, King's Road and Bert & May, Chelsea).

The location is something to smile about, too: an ever-requested tree-lined Victorian in the main SE15 street, which intersects Bellenden Road. Locally, it is referred to as the Champs-Élysées of Peckham!
