Drakefell Road, New Cross

£930,000

Traditional three double bedroom Victorian bay-fronted semi-detached house, with side access, and obvious and exciting scope for extension and renovation. Parking is unrestricted, on-street.

Currently, the house measures in at 1272 square feet, excluding generous loft and basement spaces. A generous garden completes the package - stretching 46 feet. Neighbouring gardens surround all sides; you have a wonderfully-green outlook for such a connected position.

Walk just five minutes for Nunhead Station, and ten for Brockley Station (both are Fare Zone 2). You are also close to Telegraph Hill's pretty Victorian parks.

Local schools are extremely well-liked and rated. These include Haberdashers' through-school (3-18), and Edmund Waller and John Stainer primaries.

The handsome house sits within Telegraph Hill Conservation Area. A bit about Telegraph Hill CA: designated in 1991 - it takes its name from one of the semaphore locations here from 1795 (to transfer
